

Recruitment Form

We are studying how people search their conversation history through chat applications, e.g., MS TEAMS and SLACK. We hope you participate in our research if you use one of these two applications. If so, please complete the following and schedule your pre-interview.

In this interview, we explain and ask you about chat applications usage and search. Then, we introduce you to the second stage, which concerns how a diary study can be conducted. More importantly, you read and agree to our consent to participate in our research.

* Indicates required question
